

EXHIBIT 2

CURRICULUM VITAE OF BRIAN M. TORRES

Since 1994, Brian M. Torres has practiced law in Miami, Florida, as a member of the Florida Bar. Mr. Torres prosecutes civil litigation on behalf of clients in state and federal courts and in arbitration. Mr. Torres has served as trial counsel in more than 200 civil litigation cases. He has also appeared as appellate counsel in several dozen cases, including more than 20 cases as lead appellate counsel. Client matters frequently include claims for breach of contract and related damages, including lost profits; unfair trade practices and anticompetitive conduct; violations of consumer protection statutes and regulations; infringement of intellectual property; fraud and misrepresentation; and financing-related claims.

Mr. Torres is often involved in complex litigation, including class actions venued in federal courts and the Complex Business Litigation sections of Florida circuit courts. Mr. Torres first became involved in class action litigation in 1994 as an associate with Kurzban Kurzban & Weinger, P.A., in Miami, Florida, where he was engaged in the representation of the Haitian Refugee Center, Inc., in multi-party class action litigation against the U.S. Government concerning alleged constitutional and statutory violations in its handling of both Cuban and Haitian migrants seeking to enter the U.S. See Cuban Amer. Bar Ass'n et al. v. Warren Christopher, Secretary of State, et al., 43 F.3d 1412 (11th Cir. 1995).

Subsequent to co-founding Sheftall Alvarez & Torres, P.A., in 1996, class action litigation became the predominant part of Mr. Torres's practice during the next ten years, including cases against auto insurers doing business in the State of Florida. Mr. Torres was directly involved in the representation of classes of insureds and medical providers seeking to recover damages for Florida auto-insurers' failure to pay timely Personal Injury Protection (PIP) benefits. Mr. Torres and his firm were appointed lead class counsel in nearly two dozen such cases. The first such case to be certified as a class action and affirmed on appeal was Colonial Penn Ins. Co. v. Magnetic Imaging Sys. I, Ltd., 694 So. 2d 852 (Fla. 3d DCA 1997) ("The trial court found that Magnetic and its qualified lawyers would be adequate representatives, and the record clearly supports this finding."). Additionally, Mr. Torres and his then-law partner, Scott Sheftall, Esq., are believed to be the first lawyers in Florida to obtain class certification and a damages award to a class in arbitration. USA Diagnostics, Inc. v. Fortune Ins. Co., Case No. 94-013154 (Fla. 17th Cir.).

More recently, Mr. Torres and his firm were appointed as co-class counsel in a certified class action in the Complex Business Litigation Division of Miami-Dade Circuit Court: Solaris at Brickell Bay Condo. Ass'n, Inc. v. LM Funding, LLC, 2014-CA-20043 (Fla. 11th Cir.). That class action involved allegations on behalf of a state-wide class of hundreds of condominium associations of violations of Florida's usury laws, RICO statutes, and Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act against a financial services company.

A list of representative class action cases in which Mr. Torres participated is attached at Appendix "A" to this Curriculum Vitae.
